Call to Order

The meeting of the Thirty Third Regular Legislative Session was called to order at 6:30 p.m. by Speaker Westbrook. A moment of silence was followed by the Pledge of Allegiance.

Roll Call

There were 40 senators present.

Public Input

T. Graham S. Howell

Student Government endorsed an art show with FOCUS that helped provide services to under privileged children. The Baton Rouge area hosted the show, and the student senate approved a request that helped make membership successful. Last night at the art show, a donation was made in SG’s name for two pieces of artwork. It was an original water color painting of Memorial Tower.

Lindsey Bennett

Delta Gamma will be hosting as a speaker Giuliana Rancic, E! News Anchor, Journalist, and Breast Cancer Survivor, Sunday April 21, at 7 PM in the PMAC.

Reading, Correction, and Adoption of Minutes

Senator Catalanotto moved to adopt the minutes as dispersed by email, seconded by Senator Stewart. There were no objections.

New Business

SGFB No. 13 by Senator Murphy, a Finance Bill to allocate a maximum of four thousand nine hundred forty dollars and zero cents ($4,940.00) from the Student Government Initiatives Account to the Louisiana State University Dance Marathon to attend the Children’s Miracle Network’s 13th Annual Dance Marathon Leadership Conference in Salt Lake City, Utah, was moved to Unfinished Business.

SGFB No. 14 by Senators Llorca and Beadle, a Finance Bill to allocate a maximum of three thousand dollars and zero cents ($3,000.00) from the Student Government Legislative General Contingency Account to the Louisiana State University Agricultural and Mechanical College (LSU) International Student Association (ISA) for their ‘International Fusion Festival’, was moved to Unfinished Business.
SGFB No. 15 by Senator Beadle to allocate a maximum of two thousand six hundred dollars and zero cents ($2,000.00) from the Student Government Legislative General Brigades Medical Chapter at Louisiana State University Agricultural and Mechanical College.

SGFB No. 17 by Speaker Westbrook, a Finance Bill to allocate a maximum of twenty nine thousand seven hundred ninety dollars and fifty cents ($29,790.50) from the Student Government Initiatives Account and fifteen thousand two hundred nine dollars and fifty cents ($25,209.50) from the Student Government Surplus Account to fund technology, signs, and furniture for the new Career Services Facility was moved to Unfinished Business.

SGR No. 24 by Senators Schwartzenburg and Cavell, a Finance Bill to commend the Texas A&M University Student Body President, John L. Claybrook, on his veto of the Religious Funding Exemption Bill, was moved to Unfinished Business.

SGFB No. 17 by Speaker Westbrook, a Finance Bill to allocate a maximum of twenty nine thousand seven hundred ninety dollars and fifty cents ($29,790.50) from the Student Government Initiatives Account and fifteen thousand two hundred nine dollars and fifty cents ($25,209.50) from the Student Government Surplus Account to fund technology, signs, and furniture for the new Career Services Facility was moved to Unfinished Business.

Trey Truitt, Associate Director for Employment Services and Kurt Keppler, Vice Chancellor for Student Life & Enrollment Services came to the floor to talk about the new Career Services office that will be in the Union where the bookstore was previously. The Student Tech fee was unable to provide the funds.

Favorable Passage was urged.

100% in SGFB No. 17 Enrolled

Senator Beadle moved to suspend the Rules and move back into Public Input.

Special Thanks

To Meredith, I have the utmost respect for you and your work. I was gonna bring you a brick, but there weren’t any on the Parade Grounds. For you graduation gift I will get you one.

To Andrew, I admire your drive to make this university better.

To Lindsey Bennett, I don’t know what my life would be like now without you. You’ve been my closest friend, thanks for talking to me at 3 AM.
To Trey, you’ve been a great senator. You serve your constituents well and you genuinely care about them.

To Robert, you’ve become an amazing senator and a tireless advocate for the student body. More than that, you’ve become one of my best friends. You’ve made a big impact on my life.

To Taylor, you’ve served the students well for the past year. Despite all the emotions we went through, we always managed to straighten it out.

To Carrie, we’ve had so many great memories. I can’t wait to go to Grad School with you.

To Academic Affairs Committee, you’ve been amazing. Don’t tell you that no other committee is more important.

To Elliott, I remember a time trying to figure out who you are. Little did we know how close we would all grow. I had the privilege to see you grown in Academic Affairs.

To Jacob, Alexande, Alexis, Matt, Kevin, and whoever else I forgot, keep fighting for the students.

To Morgan and her U-Court, you’re great people and I wholeheartedly appreciate all you’ve done for this body.

To David Holley, I’ve seen the impact you’ve made on this body.

To everyone in here, I don’t know how you will make it without amazing leaders.

Vice President Carrie Hebert

- Met with PS 22 Committee, and will be going to Faculty Senate
- Apologized to senators for yelling at them about College Councils and asking them to close their laptops

Special Thanks

To Senator Beadle, she came to enjoy your company and will miss your Black Caucus updates. To Senator Grashoff, thanks for the strange compliments after the first election!

Commissioner of Elections, Aimee Simon

Special Thanks

Commissioner Simon met Carrie Hebert and Andrew David in her poly com class. Carrie ranted about how she didn’t like John Stuart and Andrew sat in the back corner, where you didn’t know what he was up to and he would have all his work done a week in advance.

She thanked everyone for being awesome and for being her support.
To Thomas Rodgers, they were both on the “Be Heard” campaign. Director Rodgers would always try to be the Commissioner’s friend, would chat to her on Facebook. He always has the students in mind” she “respected him and everyone in this [Chamber] room.

She continued: Thank you all, it has been a great journey, I had a lot of ups and downs and I learned so much from the downs.

Chief of Staff, Andrew David

- There will be a Heritage Festival, Thursday at 12 PM, in the Royal Cotillion Ballroom.

Special Thanks

Chief David’s words of advice were to be bold, be confident; stand up for what you believe in and never question yourself.

He thanked everyone in the Exec staff; they accomplished 36 initiatives, 26 from their push cards, they diligently worked hard and he couldn’t be more proud.

To Miguel, I’m not sure why you haven’t left yet and thanks for taking [the] elections in stride.

To Mrs. Arlette, the first few weeks in officer were a little rough but you’ve been instrumental in everything we’ve done; you’ve been an advisor and a friend.

To Kat, David, MJ, my FLC-ers, Gabby, Hannah, Taylor, Kayleigh, you’ve all been fantastic senators and I’m so glad we’ve spent a year together.

To Alexande, Jacob you have a bright future; don't get carried away. I can still put you in your place.

To Lindsey, Leslie, David Holley, Morgan, and Andrew, thanks for the cool nicknames.

To T. Graham, what a journey. You are one of those intelligent leaders.

To Kaitlin, you are able to inspire those around you.

To Thomas Rodgers, the first time we met you were hung over from that Lady Gaga Concert, you first introduced me to Taylor Cox, and when I was your assistant you didn’t trust me to do anything.

To the VP and Pres., you’ve been the best administration we’ve had in years, even if they had a rocky start.

Now more than ever this organization needs strong leaders; we need leaders who will remain competent and listen.
President Taylor Cox

- The banquet is Friday at 6:30, the shuttle leaves at 6 from the back of the Union, and it will also drop you off.

Special Thanks

President Cox thanked every single person in the room. He has a crazy VP and crazy staff. Over the past year our admin has met trials and tribulations head on, never failing to do our best. We knew that early on that we would meet some resistance, but we met it head on. We have ensured that every voice has been heard.

Some advice: never ever back down, you must look that which scares you, and never stop fighting till you get your way. Never, ever forget that you reputation is but a moment in your life. Your character is your life, so work hard throughout your life. Do not dwell in the darkness, you have an incredible opportunity here on campus to do and be the change.

To Michael, I know I’m your least favorite branch head, YOLO, I don’t care. I’m glad we got to serve as your first LSU administration. Don’t call me, I won’t answer.

To Kolby, thank you for being my best friend, not only this year, but from the first year you were in my life. Thank you for always pushing me to be better, and Happy Birthday.

To Pinac, Elliot Thompson, Muehleman, Steven, and Stelly (sp?), I want to thank you for believing in Carrie and I, and for running on our ticket. Never, ever give up on the students at LSU, continue to serve the rest of your time here, if you need anything at all, Carrie and I am always here for you. Best of Luck in your endeavors at LSU.

To Hannah, Robert, Tray, Lindsey, Christian Jones, Andrew, Zach, thank you for believing in us and the last night coffee while we were coffee, thank you for the 2 PM tent teams.

To Lindsey: Taylor did a rendition of her three favorite accents.

To Trey, mur (?) always.

To Morgan Faulk, I don’t know what people were thinking when they elected you, whoa. When you had to take over terrible situation that occurred over a couple weeks ago, I was thinking, damn, what are we going to do?

To Andrew David, I thought it was creepy and homo when you liked all my pictures on Facebook. To be honest, out of everyone you surprised me the most. Hopefully you’ll work for me, but I know it’ll probably be the other way around.

To Meredith, you are the most intimidating person to me in SG. I was always very fearful of you; I worried you talked about me. I love you, I appreciated you.
To Carrie Hebert, why did we do this? There’s no one who I’d rather share this experience with. I know that I haven’t been the easiest person to work with. I always felt you supported me and had my back.

To John and Taylor, I wish the two of you the best of luck. Nothing will be easy. Someone will stand up for you and will be by your side, and the ones who you think will have your back, won’t. At the end of the day, it will all be worth it. People will push your limits, will question your integrity, and think you’re conniving, which is not true.

To everyone, thank you for an incredible year.

Judicial Officer Reports

Associate Justice Heathman

Zach Heathman resigned from his position in the Judicial Branch. He read his letter of resignation. To Chief Justice Faulk, you acted like a rock through our entire branch. It’s because of her that we stuck together. Thanks to everyone in J-Branch.

Senator Bevan moved to accept the resignation of Justice Heathman, seconded by Senator Murphy. There were no objections. Speaker Westbrook thanked him for his service.

Chief Justice Morgan Faulk

Chief Justice never thought the trials she would when she accepted the position as Chief Justice. She stayed out of the goodness of my heart. And my heart ain’t that good.

To Senator Swinburn, I love you.

To Dustin, ain’t got no pants on.

To Andrew David, you irk my nerves by not letting me have robes. [I] had a good time playing catch phrase.

To Thomas, he knew my whole life story.

To Carrie, you called everyone out on everything at SEC Exchange.

To David Holley, we’re the only two here who are 23. I’m not from Canada; even though he thinks I have a Canadian accent.

To J-Branch, We are really small. I know that I can call them if I need anything and vice versa. [I] formed a really strong bond with all of them

To Brianna Crabtree, love you. [I’m] so glad I got to know you, you’ve helped me with so much, you really appreciated me.

To Dario, You are sketchy, but I love it, [I] love you.
To Andrew, he’s so sweet and nice, [but] don’t ever call him an aid.

To Zach, [it’s] been such a struggle, but I love it.

To Michael, I have given Michael some stuff, yelled and cursed at him. He has put up with me, hasn’t given up on me.

To Meredith, I thought she was so intimidating but we got to know each other, she stood by me, and helped me stand up through all of this.

It was rough, but I enjoyed it.

Unfinished Business

SGFB No. 13 by Senator Murphy, a Finance Bill to allocate a maximum of four thousand nine hundred forty dollars and zero cents ($4,4940.00) from the Student Government Initiatives Account to the Louisiana State University Dance Marathon to attend the Children’s Miracle Network’s 13th Annual Dance Marathon Leadership Conference in Salt Lake City, Utah.

- LSU is the only school in the SEC that doesn’t participate in the dance marathon.
- All the proceeds of the marathon will go the Our Lady of the Lake Hospital in Baton Rouge.

Questions

Senator Schwartzenburg

Q: How many students will participate?
A: 6 directors

Senator Boudreaux

Q: What airline will be taken, where you will be staying, has this been approved by LSU, etc. How many people are there in your organization?
A: as the exact specifics of airline and lodging we haven’t worked on the details for that. As for the specifics where the money will go, it will go to the registration fee, airfare, lodging, and food will have to be paid for by students. There are eighteen members, but since we can’t fund eighteen students, we decided to cut it by a 1/3. The directors will all go through an application process.

Debate

Senator Lirette was in favor of the bill and asked the floor to be aware of asking pointed questions.

 Senator Grashoff asked if he thinks that if the ORF Committee would have passed the bill if the deadline has not passed. Senator Lirette said yes.
 Senator Taylor asked if he agreed that Finance Bills are just estimates; Senator Lirette agreed.
Senator C. Williams offered his support, said it was a great initiative and proposed a technical amendment to line 30.

Senator Vargas was also in support of the bill, regardless if the six directors are still yet to be picked. Favorable Passage was urged.

SGFB No. 14 by Senators Llorca and Beadle, a Finance Bill to allocate a maximum of three thousand dollars and zero cents ($3,000.00) from the Student Government Legislative General Contingency Account to the Louisiana State University Agricultural and Mechanical College (LSU) International Student Association (ISA) for their ‘International Fusion Festival’.

The festival will bring together American and International students, specifically from China, to learn about customs and heritage and history. The festival will include activities and all kinds of food.

Questions

Senator Schwartzzenburg asked if the ISA when to PSIF for funding. Senator Beadle answered yes.

Debate

None

Favorable Passage was urged.

100% in Favor SGFB No. 14

SGFB No. 15 by Senator Beadle to allocate a maximum of two thousand six hundred dollars and zero cents ($2,000.00) from the Student Government Legislative General Brigades Medical Chapter at Louisiana State University Agricultural and Mechanical College.

The Global Brigades Medical Chapter is a new organization at LSU; there are over 600,000 chapters in the U.S. This summer the chapter will be going to Honduras and will provide medical assistance to families who cannot attain medical care or have to travel a far distance to possible receive care. The chapter has raised $1,300 dollars so far, and the trip is not just for Biological Sciences majors, but also for all students. Twelve students will be going on the trip.

Questions

Senator Stewart asked about the issue in paying for medication that came up in committee. Senator Beadle yielded to Speaker Westbrook, who said that the medication can be a liability, so the committee decided to allocate a maximum of $2,600 to pay for the dentist, doctor, and medication. The issue will have ben worked after the bill is passed.

Debate
Senator Grashoff was in full support of the bill because it will help with the stereotype that SG has about not funding anything over $1,500.

Senator Smith was in full support of the bill because not only does it help people but gives LSU a good reputation.

Senator Schwartzenburg commended Global Brigades in their fundraising efforts and they’ve worked hard on that.

Senator Boudreaux supported the bill because it directly impacts people, gives a good image of SG, is a great idea and eh encouraged each and every one to vote for the bill.

Favorable Passage was urged.

97% in Favor SGFB No. 15 Enrolled

SGR No. 24 by Senators Schwartzenburg and Cavell, a Finance Bill to commend the Texas A&M University Student Body President, John L. Claybrook, on his veto of the Religious Funding Exemption Bill.

The purpose of this bill was to commend the president for vetoing a bill that singled out a minority group. The bill had passed on the floor with a margin of 35-28.

Debate

Senator Muehleman was in support of the bill; he has a twin sister that goes to Texas A&M and the student body was upset with the senate for passing the bill.

Senator Boudreaux was in support of the bill. He was quite upset with the Religious Funding Exemption Bill and the fact that it was a direct violation of human rights and he supports the president and his veto.

Senator Buvens and Copley made technical amendments.

Favorable Passage was urged.

98% in Favor SGR No. 24

Advisor Reports

Thomas Rodgers

- Geaux Lead is a retreat held off campus in May that promotes leadership growth.

Special Thanks to all the heads of the branches and for the Programming Department and Students on Target. He liked seeing the Senators grow personally and professionally.
Legislative Officer Reports

Speaker Pro Temp Campbell enjoyed his job despite having to deal with trials and tribulations, a special thank you to Meredith, and see you all later.

Speaker Westbrook

Petitions, Memorials, and Other Communications

Senator Smith

- Thank you for helping with the Graduate Student Appreciation Week event
- The food was gone within 30 minutes
- Thanked a few senators who volunteered.

Senator Vargas

It’s been a great year, thanks to Senator Zeringue and Buvens for working on their bill with her.

Senator Boudreaux

Thanks to each and every one who’s made a mark on his life at LSU. He came to LSU disappointed because it wasn’t his first choice, but he made the very best of friend at this university, in this chamber.

Thanks to Thomas Rodgers for giving him tips on where to go to Baton Rouge to get a good haircut, meal, or where to take a girl out.

Thanked each and every one for making a change in his life.

Thanks to the dear friends he had met: T. S. Graham-Howell, Kaitlin Torké, Lindsey Bennett, Leslie Leavoy, and Speaker Westbrook.

Senator DeBlieux

Thanks to Lindsey Bennett, Kaitlin and T. Graham, Leslie Leavoy, Thomas, Andrew David, and the branch heads.

To Taylor and Morgan, thank you for your inspiration and for the talks we’ve had.

To Carrie, you showed that anybody can make a change.

To Meredith, you’ve changed my life.
Senator Zeringue

Thanks to Senator Vargas for helping her write her first legislation.

Thanks to Senator Cavell for babysitting her during committee.

Thanks to Speaker Westbrook for taking care of her, being a great role model, and appreciating her.

Senator Pinac

Thanks to Taylor Cox for getting her started in SG.

Thanks to Meredith for being a great speaker.

Can’t wait for the new senate!

Senator Murphy

- Talked about first interacting with Speaker Westbrook at the mock meeting and at Pluckers; at Pluckers she asked if she thought that Speaker Westbrook was a brat, in which she said yes.

Senator B. Latham

Thanks for being nice to him. It was awesome meeting everyone.

Senator Thompson

Thanks to Taylor and Carrie for all their service.

Thanks to Meredith and Dustin for never being satisfied with the status quo.

Senator K. Latham

- She was not wearing her Senate Socks because she forgot them.

Thanks to Trey Schwartzenburg for always helping her out and pushing her hard.

Thanks to Meredith and Dustin for handling her and her various emotions and moods.

Senator Taylor

Shout out to Hannah Faulkner, she could never ask for a better vice chair.

- Spoke about meeting Speaker Westbrook and how they’ve become great friends.

Senator Beadle

- Shout out to his vice chair Senator Grashoff and his mentor, Speaker Westbrook.

Senator Cavell
- Talked about his entry and his years in senate, and how he met Thomas Rodgers.

To Trey Schwartztenburg, he has been a tremendous best friend, he loves him like a brother, and he hopes for the best.

To Chastity, thank you for always being there and for the night talks in Himes Hall.

Thanks to Brian Rees his mentee who didn’t need much guidance.

Thanks to Taylor and Carrie for allowing him to be a part of Be Heard.

Thanks to Speaker Pro Temp Campbell for helping him out.

Thanks to Vice Chair Kevin Latusek for being a great vice chair and doing whatever was asked of him.

To Speaker Westbrook, I love you, she broke his heart when he debated on her bill, she’s a great inspiration, thanks for trust him.

Speaker Westbrook

Her experience can’t be summed up. It included bricks, slightly infuriating Reveille articles, heated debate, and Senate Halloween meetings. Seeing everything that SG accomplished made the whole experience worthwhile. She was incredibly intimidated by SG her first year, but she gained confidence and learned how to handle tough situation. She learned how to be a leader, and she’s proud. She’s proud of the Judicial Branch; she’s never seen a better one. She’s thankful to have led. She’s not the person she was a year ago. She had hoped to do her job of holding people accountable and instilling values. Her goal was to make everyone feel that they were welcome. As for next year, please rise above the pettiness and drama. Hold on to who you are and lean on your SG family. Thanks to everyone in the room.

To Michael, you’ve been the best advisor and I’m sorry for all the times I yelled at you; it wasn’t exactly at you. Thanks for the advice and the new perspective.

To Senator Taylor, I’m glad that there are two of us and that we’re both in this organization together.

To Hannah and Aimee, thank you for all you’ve done, you’re going to do amazing things in the future.

To Catherine, Amy, and Elliot, thank you for making me laugh during meetings, and please learn how to whisper.

To Nick Smith, Andrew David, and David Holley, you did amazing things for the executive branch.

To Korey and Regina, I wouldn’t have made it through this semester without you, I appreciate your dedication.

To Nick Diamond and Chastity,

To Brian and Alexander, I’m blown away with all you’ve done.
To William, hook ‘em.

To George, I’ve got it into my head that you’re not in Phi Delta.

To Thomas, I love and respect you, and I cannot see what you do with the rest of your life.

To Carrie and Taylor, [I] couldn’t ask for better leadership, Be Heard was an amazing campaign.

To Carrie, she did incredible things with College Councils; she’s always doing something for this university.

To Taylor, you’ve been great to work with, branch head meetings were fun, [I] could not have asked for a better president.

To Aaron Caffarel, one of my best friends, you’re why I’m here. I’m a completely different Speaker than you ever thought.

To Morgan, I love you; you’re an incredible Chief Justice.

To Trey and Robert, ya’ll did so well in your positions, you kind of got thrown into things, [and I] couldn’t ask for a better leadership.

To Dustin, I remember when I really didn’t like you, I remember when I started to kinda like you, and then growing to love and respect you. You do everything I ask and more, the leader you’re growing up to be is something special.

Sorry to all the people I’ve scared

To De Andre, I love you with all of my heart.

I hope you all work hard, and will always remember to lead the way.

Adjournment

Senator Cavell motioned to Adjourn Sine Die. There was an objection by Senator Beadle. The floor went into a voiced vote.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:05 pm.
Call to Order

The meeting of the Spring 2013 Organizational Session was called to order at 10:25 p.m. by Speaker Westbrook. A moment of silence was followed by the Pledge of Allegiance, led by Senator DeBlieux.

Induction of New Senators

All new and reelected senators were sworn in by Chief Justice Faulk.

Senator Cavell moved to suspend the Rules and immediately consider EO No. 1, seconded by Senator Pinac. There were no objections.

EO No. 1 by President Woodard, an Executive Order to approve the Executive Charter.

The legislation placed a major emphasis on corporate sponsors and donors, creation new relationships in that regard, major emphasis on sponsors on external affairs. The Department of FYU has been changed into Department of FLC; one position created is the State Capital Advisor to the executive branch.

There were no questions, or debate.

100% in Favor EO No. 1 Enrolled

Speaker Pro Temp Campbell moved to suspend the Rules and move back into Election of New Speaker, seconded by Senator Muehleman. Senator Schwartzenburg moved to open the floor for nominations for new Speaker, seconded by Senator Thompson.

Speaker Pro Temp Campbell stated that he learned enough to bring a lot to the table. He wants to fix the retreat and make SG more transparent.

Senator Grashoff talked about his time at SG, and explained that veteran leadership is what will be needed and that he wants to focus and work with each individual and accomplish their agenda. He’s seen four previous speakers and how they ran the floor.

Senator Voss explained that it’s been a while since he has been in Senate. He has found that SG has reached a point where it is in need of a culture change.

After some hesitation he withdrew his candidacy.

<td>Schwartzenburg</td>
<td>What do you feel would be your biggest challenge for senate and how would you deal with that?</td>
<td>There are a lot of young members without experience, and it’s important to work with those individuals and why they’re here, and helping them accomplish their goals and their initiatives.</td>
<td>Delegacy. I know that delegating to the new Speaker Pro Temp and new leaders in senate would be the best way to strengthen the legislative branch.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Baumgartner (Yielded to Justice Crabtree)</td>
<td>Because we’re in the J-branch and we’re in a pretty divided senate, many senators have not been in the same ticket and may be against each other. How would you mediate this problem?</td>
<td>One-on-one communication, asking them why they are here, helping them out individually, and mediate and find common goals and move forward in the future.</td>
<td>Strongly believe what the previous speaker said, once you’re elected, you’re a part of senate, not a particular ticket. I really want to see senators work together.</td>

<td>Last fall I was Vice Chair for rules. I chaired meeting if the chair was not there, and served of Vice Chair as Senate, basically. I would chair senate meetings if the Speaker was not able.</td>
