SGFB No. 2 by Senator Loga, a Finance Bill to allocate two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) from the Student Government Contingency account to fund the Greek Board of Directors (GBOD) EMPOWER Leadership Program.
Author’s Opening Comments by Senator Loga who introduced Caroline and Alex, President and Vice President for the Greek Life speaking on the behalf of EMPOWER.

Caroline
- EMPOWER is a weekend long retreat for underclassmen in the Greek community
- Phase 1- informational session on February 16th
- Phase 2 – retreat on March 7-9th
- Main component – Dr. Lori Hart who is a very relatable speaker

Alex
- Announced that EMPOWER was denied by PSIF due to its location
- Each participant will pay $130
- While they have raised money, some sponsorships are still unknown, leaving a vague budget

Caroline
- 290 students applied but only allowed to take around 140 students
- The program is growing and the organization hopes to take it to the next level in coming years

Question:
Speaker pro tempore Schwartzenburg asked if this is open to all LSU students?
Answer: Only Greek students

Debate by Senator DeBlieux, who said that as a member of the Greek Community himself, he is in support of this bill. He stated that EMPOWER is a huge learning experience.

Debate by Senator Guillory, who is also in favor. Even though he is not in the Greek community, he has seen the impact it has had on other Greeks.

Debate by R. Karam, who is in favor of the bill.

Debate by Sanderson, who stated that he has only heard great things about EMPOWER and the students are handpicked to go and represent our school well.

Debate by Speaker pro tempore Schwartzenburg, who said that this is the third year that Senate helps fund EMPOWER. He stated that this is something we should be aware of. The organization has said that they are trying to wean off of Senate funding and it shows when comparing this years bills to previous bills as the amount is going down. He states that he is in favor.

Debate by Senator Grashoff, who said that he notice EMPOWER has done all funding possible. They did not want to come to Senate again, but had no other option. He was in favor of the bill.
Author’s closing comments by Senator Loga, who stated that the presenters were very prepares and are on top of their game. Favorable passage urged.

78% in Favor SGFB No. 2 Enrolled

Point of Personal Privilege – Senators Dunn and Beadle were present.

Senator Emily Smith moved to consider SGFB No. 1, seconded by Senator Beadle

SGFB No. 1 by Senators EA Smith and Watts, a Finance Bill to appropriate a maximum of one thousand six hundred and seventy dollars and zero cents ($1,670.00) of the Student Senate Contingency to help with costs associated with organizing the Graduate Student Symposium held on February 21-23, 2014 at Louisiana University Marine Consortium (LUMCON), sponsored by the Louisiana State University Agricultural and Mechanical College (LSU) Coast and Environmental Graduate Organization (CEGO).

Author’s opening comments by Senator EA Smith. She stated that the conference is held every 3 years and is a collaborative effort by graduate students to present material in a less stressful way. The goal is to keep the conference participation fee cheap, so the senators are asking for Senate to help fund lodging.

Questions:
Senator Zerkus asked if this funding would go to non-LSU students along with LSU students.
Answer: Senator EA Smith answered yes.

Senator Muehleman asked how much money would the contingency account if the bill passes?
Answer: Around $13,400

Senator Loupe asked that out of the 53 attendees, how many would be LSU students?
Answer: Senator EA Smith stated that the last count was 20 students.

Speaker pro tempore Schwartzenburg asked if LSU is hosting the event?
Answer: Yes

Speaker pro tempore Schwartzenburg asked if LSU Student Government would be listed as sponsor for the event?
Answer: Senators answered that Student Government would be recognized in the pamphlet and maybe a sponsor poster.

Senator Gore asked if Senate has funded this project in the past?
Answer: Senator EA Smith answered that it was funded three years ago but this current bill is more specific than the previous bill used three years ago. SGFB No.1 states that the money will specifically used for lodging.
Debate by Senator Taylor, who said that even though this is an event for the Graduate College, other students have been invited to go and witness the activities. She stated it is a big networking opportunity for students. She was in favor of this bill.

Debate by Senator Guillory, who said this bill passed unanimously in committee. He said that LSU wants to charge less for registration than other schools who host this event to help students.

Senator EA Smith urged favorable passage urged.

88% in Favor SGB No. 1 Enrolled

SGR No. 9 by Senator Baumgardner, a Resolution to commit the Student Government of Louisiana State University’s (LSU) support in maintaining the Magnolia Bowl Trophy along with the University of Mississippi’s Association of Student Government.

Author’s Opening comments by Speaker Grashoff and Senator Baumgardner.

Speaker Grashoff stated that since the 2008 University of Mississippi (Ole' Miss) game, known as the Magnolia Bowl, the winning team was presented a trophy provided by the student governments of both schools.

Senator Baumgardner stated that next year the University of Mississippi is also LSU’s Homecoming Game, and with the revival of the Magnolia Bowl the game would have good publication. Many people don’t know that Ole Miss is LSU’s real traditional rival and we should restart that tradition.

Debate by Speaker pro tempore Schwartzenburg
Amendment to line 12
-Seen as friendly and adopted

Amendment No.2
-Seen as friendly and adopted

Speaker pro tempore Schwartzenburg also stated that the Magnolia Bowl does still exist, but a new trophy is needed.

Questions:
Senator Sanderson asked how the trophy fell into despair or was damaged.
Answer: Speaker pro tempore Schwartzenburg was not sure, but maybe in transport.

Point of Clarification – Senator Loupe stated football players dropped it this past year.

Debate by Speaker Grashoff, who said the trophy was dropped by Ole’ Miss players, but SGR No. 9 is more goaled toward making sure the rivalry is recognized by both universities. A finance bill may come later in the semester to deal with the damaged trophy.

Questions: Senator Grashoff asked how the trophy would change?
Answer: Speaker Grashoff answered that is not being discussed at this meeting or with this bill.

Debate by Senator Tarleton, who is in favor.

Debate by Senator Bevan stated that it is only fair to recognize that Ole’ Miss is at fault for breaking the trophy.

Debate by Speaker Grashoff stated that this bill will only go into affect if Ole’ Miss also passes a similar bill.

Author’s closing comments by Senator Baumgardner who said SGR No. 9 is a great first step in revitalizing the rivalry. Favorable passage urged.

96% in Favor, SGR No. 9 Enrolled

Senator Hilton moved to immediately consider SGR No. 13, seconded by Senator Taylor.

SGR No. 13 by Senator Hilton, a Resolution to urge Louisiana Congressmen to vote in favor of H.R. 3978.

Author’s opening comments by Senator Hilton stated that the legislative bill is to provide equity for biking and low-income residents. This includes making the city more bike rider friendly by expanding pedestrian and bicycle trails.

Questions:
Speaker pro tempore Schwartzenburg asked how the state would be funding this state legislation?
Answer: Senator Hilton answered that the state would be providing low rate financing options.

Debate by Senator Lancon, who is in favor of the resolution.

Debate by Senator Loga, who stated that there is a problem on campus with bicyclist not knowing the rules of the road. He said Senator Hilton convinced him that it could limit bike on sidewalks, which would help the problems he sees.

Favorable passage urged

92% in Favor SGR No. 13 Enrolled
SGR No. 10 by Senator J. Boudreaux, a Resolution to congratulate Dr. Cynthia B. Peterson, Ph. D., on her selection as the Dean of the College of Science and to welcome her back to Louisiana State University and Agricultural College.

Author’s opening comments by Senator Boudreaux, who wants to congratulate Dr. Peterson, new Dean of the College of Science and LSU graduate.

Question: Speaker pro tempore Schwartzenburg asked if the author would be opposed to adding all science senators as authors?
Answer: Senator J. Boudreaux was in favor of this suggestion.

Debate by Senator J. Boudreaux. Amendment created by author, and adopted.

Favorable passage urged

100% in Favor SGR No. 10 Enrolled

SGR No. 12 by Senators Latham, Mullet and Muehleman, a Resolution to urge and request that the Office of Academic Affairs of Louisiana State University Agricultural and Mechanical College (LSU) develop online database of all course Syllabi for students.

Author’s opening comments by Senator Latham, who stated that not all professors are in favor of this database, but it will be good for students and there are also other supporters.

Senator Muehleman stated that the authors do not have logistics on the database, but the resolution is only showing support for the database. The professors of the Political Science Department are in favor of the resolution, so there is some professor support.

Senator Mullet stated that if students are aware of the time commitment of classes before scheduling it will help students arrange schedules around their personal and work schedules.

Senator Muehleman stated that many students switch classes once they get their syllabus, so the database may prevent schedule changing.

Senator Latham stated that the database would help many students and could be a good recruiting point for LSU and classes. She said it might also promote teachers to make similar syllabi based on time commitment.

Questions:
Senator Taylor asked if Senator Latham is talking about making this just an online syllabus database or are they asking teachers to make similar syllabi.
Answer: Not necessarily Debate by authors:
Amendment by authors to add to paragraph 3
-Seen as friendly and adopted

Debate by Senator Loupe, who is in favor, stated that many students use things like “Rate My Professor” databases online and this database may ne much more reliable.

Debate by Senator Watts, who said transparency is the key and good students would be able to use the database to better balance their schedules based on each classes workload and time commitment.

Debate by Senator J. Boudreaux, who stated that there is a large disparity between the course catalogue and what actually happens in a class. He said this database could help prevent this and provide students with advanced knowledge about the type of classes they would be taking.

Debate by Senator Loga, who is in support of the resolution.

Debate by Speaker pro tempore Schwartzenburg, who stated that Senate tried to push this incentive a few years ago, but Faculty Senate shot it done. There is a chance faculty will be more in favor now.

Debate by Senator Frink, who expressed concern about some teachers posting syllabi later than others, causing issues for students creating class or work schedules. She was in favor of the resolution.

Debate by Senator Taylor, who stated that when students begin scheduling many teachers do not know what they are teaching. She also said that the syllabus is only subject material, not how the material is taught.

Debate by Senator Grashoff, who stated that the database seems helpful, but worries students might find more ways to slack off.

Debate by Senator Lancon, who stated that as a freshman it is frustrating to try and find courses and more detailed course descriptions could help students.

Debate by Senator Guillory, who said that after working freshman orientation, he knows freshman students are very nervous about the types of courses to take. He said that the database would definitely help younger or transfer students.

Debate by Speaker Grashoff, who yielded time to Deputy Chief Justice Scalco. Deputy Chief Justice was in support of a database.
Debate Speaker Grashoff, who said that Senate represents all students and he trusts that the university will see that the system is not perfect yet, but they will do something to help students on this matter. Senators are here to discuss if students want a syllabi system.

Question: Senator Taylor asked if faculty wants course description or syllabus database?
Answer: Speaker Grashoff said it is not about what the faculty wants, but what the students want.

Debate by Senator Hauth, who said that a database would be extra beneficial to students with disability so they could contact their professors even sooner before the semester start.

Author’s closing comments by Senator Mullet. He said he was glad to hear both sides of the argument in debate, but senators are here to help students and a database is in their best interest.

Senator Latham stated that she is also happy for both sides of debate. She said if this resolution passes tonight it would be trial and error system.

Favorable passage urged

90% in Favor SGR No. 12 Enrolled

SGR No. 16 by Senators Lancon and Reeves, a Resolution to urge and request LSU Facility Services to provide more electrical outlets in classrooms throughout the campus.

Authors’ opening comments:
Senator Reeves stated that more electrical plugs are needed due to more laptops being used.
Senator Lancon stated that they are planning on completing this is a two-part plan: 2 part plan-
- Part 1: Using social media and tabling to find students opinion on the matter.
  Senator Lancon stated that according a social media, students seem to want more plugs.
- Part 2: Install electrical towers in newly renovated places like Middleton and the Union.

Debate by Senator Loga, who stated that the Manship School has a policy that students must have their own personal laptop, and that is a trend everyone is beginning to follow. Even though the Manship School mandates laptops, the Journalism Building has very few outlets.

Debate by Senator Frink, who is in favor of the resolution.
Author’s closing comments by Senator Lancon, who said that Dodson Auditorium only has two outlets, so clearly more plugs are needed. Favorable passage urged.

92% in Favor SGR No. 16 Enrolled

SGR No. 17 by Senators J. Boudreaux and Miller, a Resolution to thank the Governor of Louisiana and the members of the Louisiana State Senate and House of Representatives for their support of funding Le Conseil pour le Développement du Francais en Louisiane (CODOFIL) and its preservation and promotion of Louisiana’s Cultural Languages.

Author’s opening comments by Senator J. Boudreaux. He stated that CODOFIL was founded in 1968 with the purpose of establishing outlines of teaching and promoting French. He said that Louisiana is one of only two states to have a distinctive language other than English. It is important that CODOFIL is funded because it has helped to place translators in French speaking areas. It also affects students, providing them with scholarships and teaching.
